

PHILIP BLUMSTEIN

Mr. Blumstein practices in the areas of corporations, finance, Alaska Native law, and real estate. His experience includes advocacy in areas of complex government contracting, construction, environmental law, private equity and mergers and acquisitions.

As general counsel and commercial transactions advisor, Mr. Blumstein assists in the negotiation, preparation and performance of contractual arrangements in all areas of his corporate clients' business divisions (including wholly-owned and joint subsidiaries, joint ventures and limited liability companies), which include real estate development, utilities, oil and gas, mining, timber, fisheries, government contracts, oil field services, retail sales, transportation services and publishing.

In addition, Mr. Blumstein advises numerous public and private corporations and businesses, both domestic and foreign, in the areas of corporate affairs and finance, project development, private equity, commercial transactions, business formations, disposition and acquisitions, real estate and regulatory compliance.

LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Landye Bennett Blumstein LLP. Partner, January 1, 2000 - Present

Blumstein & Dunn. Shareholder, January 1999- December 1999

Birch, Horton, Bittner and Cherot. Shareholder, September 1990 - February 1999

EDUCATION

Boston University Law School, Boston, Massachusetts (J.D. 1982)

State University of New York, Binghamton, New York (B.A. 1979)

STATE BAR AND COURT ADMISSIONS

Member of the bar of the State of Alaska, the United States District Court, District of Alaska, the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, the United States Court of International Trade, the United States Court of Federal Claims, and the United States Supreme Court.