About

Bob's practice focuses on commercial transactions including secured transactions, business, corporate, limited liability company, Alaska Native, real property, bankruptcy and litigation. Activities include negotiating agreements and engaging in and managing legal, due diligence and business aspects of company and asset formation, acquisition and disposition, debt and equity financing, and enforcement of creditor rights through private, judicial and bankruptcy process. Clients have included public and private corporations engaged in gaming, forest products, aviation, commercial financing, and commercial real estate purchase, sale, development and leasing.

Bob focuses on representing local, regional, and national businesses respecting sales and acquisitions, security, lending, and other contractual relationships and commercial transactions; real estate sales, leasing, financing and development; corporate, LLC and partnership organization and operation; and bankruptcy. Many of his clients are Alaska Native corporations facing issues unique to Native corporations.

Bob has presented continuing education programs on ANCSA, commercial real estate leasing, secured transactions, and bankruptcy matters. Bob created and maintains, as a primary resource for information about Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act ("ANCSA"), the ANCSA Resource Center.
