

Jackson joined Landye Bennett Blumstein LLP in 2023 and brought with him a wealth of experience from several years of addressing legal matters for diverse businesses and organizations across various sectors.

Before embarking on his role at LBB, Jackson served as a law clerk for the Honorable Rachel Ahrens of the Alaska Superior Court at Valdez and the Honorable Bride Seifert of the Alaska Superior Court at Homer. During his time in law school, Jackson made significant contributions at a prominent publicly traded telecommunications company where he focused on real estate transactions.

His legal journey also included an internship at the San Francisco District Attorney's Office, where he assisted with the prosecution of serious felonies. Prior to entering law school, Jackson worked in Business Affairs in the film and television industry.
