About

Larry enjoys the practice of law as it provides a vehicle for creative problem-solving on behalf of his clients. He is an accomplished and seasoned trial litigator with over 20 years of courtroom experience, conducting over 150 criminal jury trials and delivering winning verdicts through well-planned, logical, and compelling arguments. He brings a deep knowledge of trial preparation and advocacy in complex cases. His extensive litigation experience includes a focus on resolving cases during pre-trial stages, as well as pursuing success in the courtroom.

Larry has worked for the Alaska Attorney General's Office, the Municipality of Anchorage, and county agencies across California. At LBB, he focuses his practice on civil litigation, construction law, insurance litigation, and liability defense.
